

Poland expels U.S., Canadian attaches

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — The Polish Communist government charged Thursday the army attaches of the U.S. and Canadian embassies were caught "carrying out intelligence activities" and the American was ordered to leave Poland before Jan. 16.

He is Lt. Col. Edward H. Metzger, 42, of Quincy, Mass., on assignment in Warsaw since May 1966.

The Polish accusation, carried by the official press agency

PAP, said Metzger and the Canadian attaché, Lt. Col. Kenneth I. Jefferson attempted to photograph a military establishment on Jan. 4.

An official statement by the U.S. Embassy, making no mention of Jefferson, said Metzger was walking along a major thoroughfare in Bydgoszcz in northern Poland, "was apprehended at gun point by military personnel, detained against his will, denied permission to telephone the American Embassy and forcibly searched."

The statement said the U.S. government, here and in Washington, protested this "flagrant violation of the immunity of an American diplomatic officer."

"At the time of his apprehension," it added, "Col. Metzger was on a trip in an area where American diplomatic personnel are permitted to travel without restriction."

The statement said Metzger was detained for some hours, from midafternoon until early morning, Jan. 5.

Metzger, who was declared persona non grata—unwelcome—said he plans to leave Warsaw Sunday with his wife and son.

The Polish Press Agency said the "unlawful activities" of Col. Jefferson were brought "firmly" to the attention of the Canadian Embassy and "further consequences are under consideration."

According to a Canadian Embassy spokesman, Jefferson, 43, went on leave last Sunday, traveling by car to England to take his daughter to a British school. The spokesman said the leave had been planned for some time, was to last 30 days and that Jefferson was scheduled to return to Warsaw. He had been stationed here since August.

The Polish Press Agency said the account given by the U.S. Embassy was "contrary to the facts and to the documented proofs being at the disposal of the Foreign Ministry."

The ministry version, as given by PAP, said the two officers were "unmasked while carrying out their intelligence activities in an area of important military objects."

It said sentries noticed them photographing and called on them to hand over the camera.

"Both diplomats attempted to run away," the Polish account said, "but realized they were caught redhanded."

Oil countries ponder defense

LONDON (AP) — Five Middle Eastern oil states were reported Thursday to be pondering a new defense pact Thursday night after hearing of Britain's provisional decision to quit her Persian Gulf bases by 1971.

Senior diplomats said the highly secret moves, initiated by Iran, have Britain's support.

The Iranians are even bringing such hostile neighbors as Iraq and Bahrain into the picture. They hope to head off another fierce power contest in the strategic area. Other countries involved, according to the informants, are Saudi Arabia and Kuwait.

Post office plans new air delivery

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Post Office Department announced Thursday to abandon its separate airmail service and transport all first-class letters by plane.

The new 6-cent rate for first-class postage will remain unchanged.

Postmaster Gen. Lawrence F. O'Brien, in announcing the plan at a news conference, said the department already is carrying most letters by air, but only an airmail stamp—at the new 10-cent rate—currently guarantees letters a place on the plane.

The Post Office plans to ask Congress in 1969 to formally eliminate the airmail rate and create a new single-class priority service under which all letters destined for distant points would travel by plane.

Already Iran has won Russian backing—$110 million worth of arms aid—for an over-all $800-million program to re-equip and modernize her armed forces.

A Foreign Office minister, Geoffrey Roberts, returned Friday from the Gulf region, where he has been visiting local monarchs and sheiks to expect an early announcement of Britain's withdrawal.

This is due in Parliament next Tuesday as part of a massive package of spending cuts designed, once and for all, to restore Britain's solvency.

Military pullout

Other British retrenchments will include a total military pullout from Malaysia and Singapore by 1971 and a cut, or cancellation, of the order of 50 American F-111 swing-wing strike bombers.

Possibilities of modifying all, or some, of these decisions were under discussion.

Recent Red attacks take toll; American casualties increase

SAIGON (AP) — Casualty statistics from battle actions a year apart reflect an intensification of the Vietnam ground war due in some degree to revived Communist quests for the initiative.

Spokesmen announced Thursday that 466 of the allies including 184 Americans—about the recent average—died last week in combat in which they killed a record 2,858 Communist troops.

In contrast, the first week of January 1967 was relatively quiet. The allies then listed 190 dead, including 67 Americans, and said they had killed 328 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese soldiers.

Widely scattered ground clashes were reported Thursday, while a dense cloud cover continued to cut down air operations over North Vietnam.

The monsoon weather limited U.S. pilots to 75 missions against targets north of the border Wednesday. All were radar-guided attacks and there were no immediate bomb damage assessments.

In the South, much of the skirmishing centered in lower provinces of the northernmost 1st Corps area, where elements of the U.S. Americal Division for weeks have been tangling with strong enemy forces.

The Saigon command said Americal troops killed 40 of the enemy Wednesday and discovered the bodies of 84 killed in previous fighting. U.S. losses were unspecified.

Red troops probed an artillery support base of the brigade of the U.S. 196th Light Infantry Brigade near the coastal town of Tom Ky in the night, but were driven back. A search turned up seven bungalow torpedoes, apparently intended for use in blowing up the base defenses.

Nearer Saigon, in areas from 20 to 25 miles around the capital, there were a series of probes or light attacks on South Vietnamese militia posts. Casualties on both sides were reported light.

A Vietnamese air force F5 Freedom Fighter crashed into a village about 15 miles northeast of Saigon Thursday night, killing 10 Vietnamese civilians and the pilot. Several houses were destroyed.

The jet went down little more than a mile east of the big air base at Bien Hoa a few seconds after it took off on a strike mission.

The U.S. 9th Infantry Division reported at least 47 men of the Viet Cong's 261st Battalion were killed in a 10-hour fight set off late Wednesday with the landing of a 150-man infantry company from assault boats on a Mekong Delta canal 54 miles southwest of Saigon.

bearers—and wounded 30, while 23 Communists were killed and two captured. He said the ammunition bearers were Vietnamese army deserters who had been caught and were being used as unarmed laborers.

The U.S. Command, in confirming the Communist death toll of 2,858 in the Dec. 31-Jan. 6 reporting period, said more were killed than in "any comparable period in the history of the Vietnam conflict." The previous high was 2,774 in the week of March 19-25, 1967.

In addition to 184 Americans killed in action last week, 1,132 were wounded. That compared with 185 killed and 437 wounded in the previous week.

Farmers start grain boycott

By BERT WALTER
Pocono Record Reporter

STROUDSBURG — The National Farmers Organization has launched another farm products withholding campaign to boost the prices of farm commodities, but the more than 350 Monroe County farmers, if anything, will be on the sidelines watching.

Pledging again, "No price, no production," the NFO Thursday chose to hold back grain from going to market until farmers get the price they want. The NFO with membership in 30 states, set a price of $1.50 per bushel on corn; $2.25 per hundred-weight on other feed grains and comparable prices for all other grains.

Next on the NFO withholding list are withholding actions on meat, milk and other farm commodities.

One of the major reasons why Monroe County's farmers will be on the sidelines, and on the outside looking in, or vice versa, is because the county's farmers do not have an NFO chapter.

in order to obtain the price they want.

The NFO conducted six previous withholding actions, major ones on livestock in 1962 and 1964 and on milk last March. The boycotts resulted in some violence. Monroe County farmers sympathized somewhat with the NFO on the milk withholding action.

NFO officers state that these withholding actions are necessary in order to allow farmers to bargain for their prices. The farmers, the officers state, are the only businessmen throughout the country who take their goods to market and ask "how much will you give me for it."

National NFO president Oren Lee Staley said this particular withholding action "is designed to shut down the American agricultural plant until our members get a fair price for their products."

In Monroe County, the farms have been shutting down since 1949. The county had a total 684 farms in 1949 which comprised 89,145 acres.

In 1964, the latest accurate figures available, the county had only 378 farms which comprised 48,369 acres. Only 84 farmers had a gross income of over $10,000.

The reasons for the decline vary, but the basic reason seems to be that the area is becoming more and more tourist oriented and that is where the money is to be gotten.

The withholding action on the grain, may however, effect the local farmer in the same way it might affect each resident. If the NFO is successful in getting its price for the grain, indications are that the price of grain related products, such as bread, will go up. Local dairy farmers may be affected in purchase of grain feed for cattle if the prices increase.

If and when the NFO launches its second withholding action attack on the milk, Monroe County farmers will not be participants.

Marines die in plane crash

BATTLE MOUNTAIN, Nev. (AP) — Searchers, struggling in a snowblanketed mountain into an almost-inaccessible canyon, Thursday found the burned wreck of a Marine transport plane with all aboard dead.

The four-engine plane, carrying 18 to 20 Marines, crashed in a blizzard Wednesday afternoon near the peak of 9,978-foot Mt. Tobin, the highest point in the desolate area of northeastern Nevada 32 miles southwest of Battle Mountain.

Wally Swanson and Gene Corbridge of the Bureau of Land Management, who first spotted the wreck shortly after dawn, reached the spot at 12:50 p.m. (PST) and radioed back that there were "no survivors. Everything is burned to a crisp except the tail."

It took the two men six hours on foot to cover three miles up the mountain and into the V-shaped ravine near the top where the blackened hulk lay.

Forced down by heavy icing on its wings, the plane had crashed on its belly, then slid 400 feet backward into the depression and burst into flames.

Swanson and Corbridge confirmed earlier aerial observation that the craft was virtually intact but burned out.

"Everything on the plane was charred, and the black stood out against the white snow," said Marilyn Newton, photographer of the Nevada State Journal after flying over the wreck which was at the 8,600 foot level.

Powell calls America 'sick society'

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Adam Clayton Powell said Thursday that the nation's young people and Black Power are the only remedies for what he described as a "sick society."

Powell spoke to about 5,000 students at San Diego State College before departing in the afternoon to continue his speaking tour in San Francisco.

The 59-year-old Harlem Democrat was received politely and won scattered applause during his 20-minute talk in the Campus Outdoor Theater.

Powell said students are leaderless and don't have a part in the "decadent American society."

He said Black Power is not a young peoples movement to "throw out the old white leaders in Washington who are making this a second class nation."

"It is time for you to follow black leaders—Stokely Carmichael, Floyd Mc Kisicki, Elton Beaulieu and the 'Old Man of the Sea' me," he said.

Whites still get good jobs

WASHINGTON (AP)—A series of government reports shows that whatever may have been done to end employment discrimination on the lower levels, the key to the executive suite is still tagged mainly for the white, Anglo-Saxon Christian.

The reports, by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, are to be made public at hearings in New York City next week. The hearings were called to explore employment discrimination on the white collar level in some of the nation's largest businesses.

This is the first time in the commission's 24-year history that it has moved primarily into big business white collar employment, although it tackled drug industry discrimination last fall.

The commission has prepared at least four reports to back up its findings, and is prepared to listen to industry representatives explain what they have done to try to eliminate racial, religious and sexual discrimination in employment.

The commission studies are based on data which employers were required by law to submit concerning their employment patterns in 1966 and 1967. The reports are focused on New York City.

One report details the employment patterns of 100 major New York City corporations—and these firms, while headquartered in New York City, account for nearly 16 per cent of the nation's total output of goods and services and employ about 10 per cent of the 26 million persons covered under the commission's employment reporting system. The report covers, however, only their New York operations.

Vacationing governor signs solons' pay bill

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Shafer interrupted his Virgin Islands vacation Thursday to sign into law a bill providing the 18 legislative leadership offices with annual pay increases ranging from $1,500 to $8,500.

The measure along with $128 million in appropriations, including $104 million for the three state-related universities, was approved by Shafer at his vacation retreat at St. Croix, his Harrisburg office reported.

Milk control issue stalled

HARRISBURG (AP) — A proposal to abolish the state Milk Control Commission was withdrawn unexpectedly from the Constitutional Convention Thursday, but its sponsors say they have not given up the battle.

The sponsors, delegates Henry P. Otto of Pittsburgh and Richard L. Huggins of McKeesport, said they intend to introduce a stronger amended proposal when the convention returns next week.

Otto and Huggins withdrew their original proposal Wednesday by dropping an appeal from a ruling by Lt. Gov. Raymond J. Broderick, convention president, that the question of consumer price controls was outside the convention's limited jurisdiction.

Debate

The surprise move came at the end of an hour-long debate in which Otto, Huggins and a third sponsor, delegate Harold H. Goldman, had argued the convention had every right to consider the proposal.

Goldman, the first to capitulate, said he favored withdrawing the appeal in the interest of keeping the convention's scope limited.

"My reason for withdrawing is not because I do not thoroughly agree with the proposal," Goldman said, "but because I believe it would open the door and permit other questionable proposals to come in. It would split the convention wide open."

Otto, pointing out he had relied on Goldman's legal advice in submitting the appeal, agreed to withdraw the proposal.

"It is a difficult decision to make," Otto said, "but I have great respect for Mr. Goldman's opinion, so I will withdraw the proposal."

Huggins also agreed to drop the appeal.

Earlier, delegate Benjamin J. Levin of Media had withdrawn an appeal to a Broderick ruling dismissing a proposal that would have given the defendant in civil court cases the right to select a jury or non-jury trial.

Under convention rules, Broderick may refuse to accept any proposal he determines is beyond the convention's mandated authority to consider only four specific articles of the Constitution.

The same rules, however, specify Broderick's decisions may be upset by a majority vote of the delegates. It would take 82 votes to overturn a ruling.

To date, Broderick has rejected 17 proposals on jurisdictional grounds. Several appeals have been filed, but only one has been put to a floor vote. In that instance, Broderick's ruling was upheld.

Three proposals were put before the convention Thursday, the last day proposals could be introduced from the floor. That brought the total submitted since the convention opened to 210.

Milk buyers receive dividends

PITTSBURGH (AP)—"It's the most wonderful thing that could happen," an 81-year-old retired man said Thursday after collecting his first dividend on milk he bought at a dairy store operated by a farmers' cooperative.

"I've been coming here since they opened about a month ago," said Guy DiBenedictis, who lives about two blocks from a United Dairy Farmers' store in Pittsburgh's Brookline section.

"A lot of people can't afford to spend a lot of money on milk, and this helps a lot," he said.

DiBenedictis was among the early customers to turn in their cash register receipts at co-op stores to collect a 15-cent dividend on every gallon of milk they had bought.

Lower price

They paid $1.05 a gallon, the minimum retail price fixed by the state Milk Control Commission. But the dividend means they actually are paying only 91 cents a gallon.

But the co-op is operating under a cloud because the Milk Commission hasn't indicated yet whether it will try to block the new retailing plan. A commission spokesman said its lawyers are investigating to see if there's any conflict between co-op and milk laws regarding dividends.

Luther Eikin, a co-op official, said the farmers expect to pay about $2,000 in dividends over the next few days. They have eight stores in Pittsburgh and neighboring counties.

"We're paying a 15-cent dividend now," he said, "but it may go up. It won't go any lower. We'll pay dividends for a period of about five days every month."

The bills were transmitted to the governor by Budget Secretary Arthur F. Sampson, who went to the Virgin Islands Wednesday for some preliminary discussions on the 1968-69 budget.

The legislative pay bill primarily provided a 10-to-15 per cent salary increase for legislative employees at a total annual cost of $1,083,850.

The leadership increases, however, were included as part of a two-bill package to increase the pension base of rank-and-file legislators from $5,000 to $7,200 to coincide with a $1,200 for themselves two years ago.

Shafer vetoed the pension bill last week because it contained a provision which would have provided the leadership with open-end pensions which, with enough legislative service, could have exceeded their regular annual compensation of $7,200 in salary and $4,800 in personal expenses.

Under the new law, effective immediately, the Speaker of the House and Senate President Pro Tempore will have their additional compensation jumped from $3,000 to $10,000. They were the only two legislative officers to be compensated above the straight $12,000 accorded the rank-and-file.

In addition, the four majority and minority floor leaders in both the House and Senate will receive an extra $3,500 for their positions, jumping their total salaries to $15,700, plus the straight $4,800 in expenses.

Other rules

The four majority and minority whips will receive an additional $4,000 for an annual compensation of $16,000; the majority and minority caucus chairmen, $3,500, $15,500; and the four caucus secretaries, $2,500, $14,500.

Each of the 18 leadership positions have had appropriations in the past contingency allowances to cover the added duties of their offices. The contingency funds are to be reduced according to the extra salary they now will receive.

Date listed for farmers to file tax

STROUDSBURG — Farmers who earned at least two-thirds of their 1967 gross income from farming should file their declaration of estimated Federal income tax (including self-employment) for 1967 on or before Monday, January 15, 1968. Form 1040-ES should be used for this purpose.

However, Seymour I. Friedman, district director of Internal Revenue for Eastern Pennsylvania, said that farmers need not file an estimate if they file their 1967 Federal income tax return, Form 1040, and pay in full any tax due by February 15, 1968.

Ann Landers

The male ego

Dear Ann Landers: We are in our mid-thirties and have been married eight years. Our twin boys (three years old) are unusually energetic and refuse to nap during the day. They do sleep 12 hours a night, however, and my pediatrician says this is adequate rest and not to worry.

The problem is not with the boys but with their father. He seems to think that whenever he gets a romantic notion (which is often) I should drop everything and make like madame Pompadour.

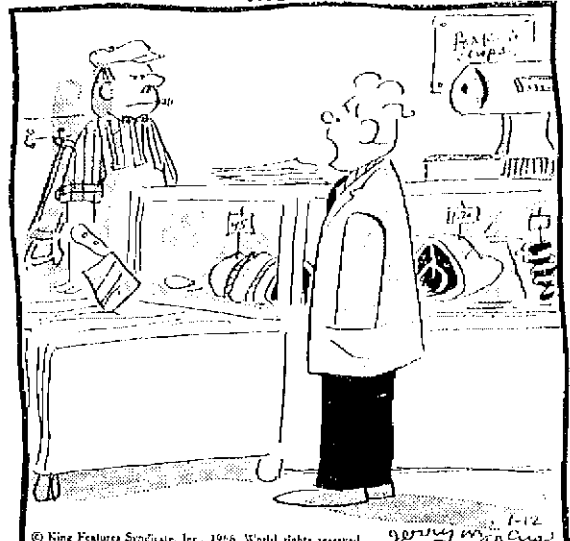

Yesterday my husband came home at noon to have lunch and pack for a three-day trip to Montreal. He told me to put the kids outside for a little while because he was feeling amorous. I was in the middle of the laundry and explained that during the day I have to be mother first and a sweetheart second, but he wouldn't listen. He walked out of the house and slammed the door—mad as hops.

Please come up with a solution to this problem, Ann. Because it is sure to come up again.

Shade tree symposium slated for Penn State

STROUDSBURG — The third annual Pennsylvania management symposium will be held at Pennsylvania State University on Feb. 7, 8 and 9. The theme for this year will be "Community Beautification Through Shade Tree Management."

Monroe County Agent John Withrow indicates that the symposium should supply information on the problems of beautification by bringing together the experts who understand this problem. He also states that the meeting will provide a medium for the exchange of knowledge and ideas.

Withrow said that we must properly utilize and maintain the trees in our communities. "These trees, when taken care of, are an important asset to the community. The value of a tree is difficult to measure, but the aesthetic beauty which it imparts to our streets increases property values and also provides a pleasant atmosphere in which to live."

But, Withrow commented, too little attention has been given to street tree care. The solution to the problem is adequate planning and management.

"The proper selection and maintenance of street tree species is essential for satisfactory conditions in the future. Trees, like our streets and sidewalks, require constant maintenance if we are to benefit however, the cost of planning is very small when it is measured over the 50 to 100 years of natural beauty that we can expect from the trees along our streets," Withrow added.

The Saturn 5 rocket made its debut Nov. 9 on a flight designed to test the various systems that will be used when the craft makes its first journey to the moon with Americans aboard the Apollo capsule.

The Monroe County agent announced a number of subjects to be discussed at this year's symposium. Sessions will be devoted to a wide range of problems such as, "Shade Tree Selection," "Air Pollution," "Planting," "Shade Tree Commissions and Federal Assistance." Other related topics will be discussed during the three-day symposium.

Further information concerning the symposium can be obtained by contacting Withrow, County Agricultural Agent, located at 205 Post Office Building, Stroudsburg, telephone 421-6430.

P.V. trio in state farm show

BRODHEADSVILLE — Clifford Stroud, advisor for the Pottsville Chapter of the Future Farmers of America, at Pleasant Valley High School, has announced the names of the members who will participate in events at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show.

The Farm Show will be held in Harrisburg next week. Donald Switzgabel was chosen as the delegate to the 39th annual Winter Convention of the State FFA. He represents Monroe, Carbon and Northampton counties.

Niles Frantz, a senior, will be awarded the Keystone State Farmer Degree. Only two percent of the FFA members can receive this award in any one year.

Frantz received his award on the basis of his supervised farming program and leadership activities.

Tommy Bartholomew, Kenny Green, and Jacob Warner will play with the FFA band at Penn State. Floyd Frisbie is the band director at Pleasant Valley.

Underground hotel planned

SYDNEY (AP) — A 15-bed-room hotel, 28 feet underground, is planned for Cober Pedy, the scorched opal-mining center in Central Australia.

The hotel will have a reception desk, dining room and the rest, and will be air-conditioned. The walls are planned in their natural state—white and red sandstone.

Cober Pedy, with an average summer temperature between 95 and 100 degrees, is so hot that most of the people live underground.

A GUEST AT A BANQUET WHO IS HUNGRY

Dear Guest: Most people who are hungry are not actually starving to death, they would just like more food.

My advice is to keep "initiating things" and stop feeling like a lewd woman. Some men would go to their graves celibate if the woman didn't make the first move. If you alter your attitude and stop being so resentful Jim might respond in a way that will surprise you.

Pocketbook controls soil work

STROUDSBURG — Farmers tailor their conservation measures to the farm family's pocketbook, Paul R. Everett, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, said this week.

While most farmers know that soil conservation helps both the land and its productivity in the long run, Everett said that many feel they cannot afford the expense of conservation practices.

Studies in the Midwest have shown that it sometimes takes five to 15 years for conservation systems of farming for erosion control to become profitable in terms of dollars and cents, he said.

The USDA official pointed out that the longer farmers wait, the less likely it is they will be able to meet their conservation problems using only their own resources.

Cost-sharing
"This may be the time to consider USDA cost-sharing to assist in getting needed conservation work done," Everett said.

He also pointed out the advantages of pooling agreements, arrangements whereby two or more farmers with a common conservation problem are able to put their cost-shares, their labor and other resources together to do a total job that would be too big for one farmer to accomplish alone.

Maggie Moyer claims record for snowmobile—91 years

EFFORT — Maggie Moyer gets a kick out of riding a snowmobile. So do lots of others who have discovered its fun to drive over snow, hill and dale. But Maggie is a special case. She'll be 91 in March.

Mrs. Moyer, formerly of Allentown, is one of the oldest guests of the 27 who board with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bilodeau at Brookmont Acres. She's the most adventurous of the three.

Everett said the committee is available to meet with farmers or groups of farmers to help them work out solutions to their conservation problems.

who are her age at the nursing home.

Last summer at the West End Fair, Bilodeau succumbed to the lure of a snowmobile. He bought one "mostly for pleasure but for a little business" he said. Mrs. Moyer pestered him for a ride. One wasn't enough, she's had several.

Other guests are showing interest that makes the snowmobile the prime attraction at Brookmont Acres. The Bilodeaus have operated the nursing home for about 30 months. Before that they ran Brookmont as a resort for 19 years.

The group gives three concerts annually: January, May, and August, and also produces an album composed of selections taken from each concert.

Barnes samples egg mixture before big race

Rivals in middle of egg derby

Whoops! Sudden ending

'Greaser' slides to victory as pale participant hits pail

By GIL MURRAY
Record News Editor

EAST STROUDSBURG — Two students at East Stroudsburg State College tried to pull off a real 'yolk' Thursday night.

Inspired by a current movie, Dan Barnes, a junior from Pocono, and Joe Bianco, a senior from Pocono, decided to start out to set Monroe County's fraternity record for eating hard-boiled eggs.

The goal was 50 and the time limit was two hours, starting at 6 p.m.

Turns pale

Shortly before 7, Bianco started to look a bit pale and Barnes dashed for a nearby waste basket.

The two members of the Tau Delta Epsilon Fraternity were attempting to duplicate a stunt which, chilling fact by Paul Newman in the movie "Cool Hand Luke."

For theatergoers with voracious appetites, "Cool Luke" calmly downed 50 eggs to win a whimsical bet.

It wasn't make believe in a large living room next to the YKE House on Center St.

The Greaser downed 16 eggs in the first 27 minutes and still acted hungry.

No charge

The brothers who bet on Barnes' appetite were yelling, "Watch out for the Barnes charge."

Bianco decided to make salad out of his next 10 eggs and that move did him in. After the Greaser finished mixing in the mayonnaise, one of his backers shouted:

"Come on, Joe, use your hands, the way you do at home."

At this point, Barnes was still pecking away at his eggs, which were mashed in a pan. He then started to pretend that he was getting sick and he fainted himself right into the waste basket.

When asked what he had eaten during the day before his assault on Cool Luke's record, Bianco said, "Two cups of coffee and two hard-boiled eggs."

Although no national records were set, the eggs were devoured. After it became apparent that the two challengers were under the weather, about 30 brothers descended on the leftover eggs and set a group record for egg eating.

Requests total $250,000

Assessor budget $107,000

STROUDSBURG — A proposed $107,823 operating budget was presented to the Monroe County Commissioners Thursday by William Fetherman, chief assessor. The figure upped county agency's 1967 budget requests to nearly $330,000.

According to Fetherman, the new assessor's budget represents nearly a $5,000 increase over the 1967 figure of $103,114.

Fetherman also said the county has in its general fund a $6,000 amount originally slated for the assessors in 1967 but never requested.

The funds are slated to pay remaining bills for automatic assessing machines already received by the assessor, approved for installation by the previous board of commissioners.

Proposed in the new budget is a $2,165 figure for four air conditioners and acoustical paneling for the assessor's offices. The soundproofing is requested for the top floor area to be occupied by the numerous machines used in the automated taxing process.

Fetherman said a number of proposed raises accounted for a $58,208 figure anticipated for salaries that includes a $25 per week increase for Fetherman that would raise his salary to $8,500 annually.

In other business, the commissioners approved a request by Fetherman for the purchase of two stools and a drafting machine in the mapping department.

Commissioners also filled occupational tax assessor vacancies for two county districts.

H. L. Brooks, Stroudsburg, was appointed as assessor for Stroudsburg's First Ward and Marian Ryerson, Henryville, for Pocono Township.

According to board chairman Elwood Hintze, the appointments will be confirmed by letter with instructions to the assessors explaining their duties and responsibilities.

Commissioners also approved the hiring of Henry A. Miller, Stroudsburg, as a chief deputy assessor, to fill the vacancy left by Robert Brinn, who resigned to become chief deputy sheriff.

Teacher on TV

HARRISBURG — Joseph Standa, president of the Pennsylvania State Education Assn., will be interviewed on the "Pennsylvania News Conference" on KYW-TV Sunday at 12:30 p.m. Among the topics to be discussed is teacher salaries.

Barrett supervisors hear report filled with tragedy

BARRETT TOWNSHIP — A somber December Barrett Township report, which included three tragedies, was submitted to the township supervisors by township Police Chief William Everett, Thursday night.

The holiday month was marred by a young man who shot himself with a rifle at Buck Hill; a 15-year-old youth who drowned at Skytop Lake; and a baby girl who died despite valiant efforts to save her by her grandfather and a local doctor.

The report also included four arrests and four burglaries for December.

Roadmaster Stanley Bender suggested that something should be done about cars parked on Oak Lane, Mountainhome. He said the cars can't get through due to the parked cars. He suggested that the cars should be ticketed or towed away.

Everett said a township ordinance should be passed to keep cars off township and state roads during heavy snow storms, except in cases of emergency.

Board chairman Roger Lindsey pointed out that if some residents are having a party and cars are parked along the road, it wouldn't be fair to ticket or tow away these cars. He suggested an ordinance be drawn up applicable only for snow conditions.

Trade show scheduled

PAHMENT — W. P. Canby, Jr., President of the Pennsylvania Petroleum and Fuels Association and Jack Malchorn, President of the Greater Philadelphia Fuels Conference, announced jointly Thursday that the 1968 Pennsylvania Joint Convention and Trade Show, with the theme "Pursuit of Excellence," will be held at Tamiment in the Poconos, May 12 to 15, 1968.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Patrick Hickey of W. S. Peeney, Inc., local members of Pennsylvania Petroleum and Fuels Association, will serve as co-chairmen of entertainment.

to various township governing bodies.

They were Chester Seese, reappointed to the township planning commission for a five-year term; Blaine Siglin, appointed to the municipal authority for a five-year term; and Arthur McCambridge, reappointed to the Pocono Mountain Airport Authority for a five-year term.

The supervisors received a letter of complaint from E. H. McCue, Canadensis. McCue said that several barned stumps on his property, a hazard to children and an eyesore, should be removed by the township. Lindsey said action will be taken to remove the stumps.

Two township residents, Michael and Marjorie Sopko, Mountainhome, complained to the supervisors about a section of pipe running under a road to their driveway. They claimed the concrete pipe wasn't properly installed by the township, that the pipe was set too deep.

Bender said that another section of pipe would correct the drainage problem and that the situation will be corrected.

Commissioners name new members

Three planners lose posts

STROUDSBURG — Donald DeOtte, past chairman of the Monroe County Planning and Zoning Commission, and one of three commission members passed up for re-appointment, expressed surprise Thursday at a move by the county commissioners to name three new appointees to the planning board. The move also ousted the commission chairman Ralph Heppert, whose term expired Jan. 1, and Chester S. Miller, vice president of Ottaway Newspapers-Radio Inc., who reportedly did not seek re-appointment.

New members approved by the commissioners are David Nelson, Swiftwater, and business manager of the Pocono Mountain School District, Amzi Altomose, Brodheadsville, and R. H. Barney Staples, Stroudsburg contractor.

According to DeOtte, active on the commission since its beginning in 1964, the move came as a "complete surprise." DeOtte indicated several months ago he would be interested in serving another four-year term as a commission member.

Surprised

"I would have liked to have been re-appointed," DeOtte said, "I rather thought I would."

He said he had been active in starting the commission and reported that his attendance at the meetings was second only to Heppert's.

According to DeOtte, who was appointed to the post by the previous board of county commissioners, he had no knowledge that a change was to be made and indicated again the move was a surprise.

Accepting the news of the appointments DeOtte said, "It's up to them (the commissioners) and concluded, 'That's the way it goes.'"

In other business, Donald Robbins, Tannersville insurance agent, told commissioners he believed there "is no purpose in bidding the county's insurance package," and added he saw "no advantage to the plan."

Robbins, along with Crowe Insurance representative Walter McClelland, were present during Thursday's meeting to present their views on the county's insurance development.

Robbins accused the E. A. Bell and Crowe agents of "not accounting for their lower bids submitted to the commissioners."

Robbins was one of the three agents bidding on the county's coverage, and was high.

"The cat's out of the bag now," Robbins said, "I don't think there's any advantage to bidding it now."

Robbins suggested the county rely on one reputable agent to serve expressly as the county's broker.

Following the meeting Robbins labeled the insurance development as an "unfortunate mess."

Also appearing before the board was McClelland, representing the Maryland Casualty Co.

McClelland labeled the statement that there is "no purpose" in bidding the insurance as "ridiculous," but warned that strictly awarding the contract to a low bidder could produce additional problems.

"It would be perilous to accept a bid willy-nilly from a low bidder," he said.

McClelland concurred with Bell partner Harry Mullins, who appeared before the board last week, and said a letter requesting bids sent by the county was "ambiguous."

"We took it to mean blanket coverage alone," McClelland said, "and not to include a contract for the workman's compensation."

"If done properly it should be bid," he concluded.

Minor fire in West End

BRODHEADSVILLE — The West End Fire Co. answered a call at the home of Floyd Bush, Brodheadsville, Tuesday night, with three trucks and 25 men.

Minor damage resulted from a fire in the garage from an overheated stove. Bush was using the garage as a woodwork shop. No injuries were reported.

Freezing temperatures keep plumbers on run

STROUDSBURG — You can't say the plumber's trade will ever reach antiquity, not this time of year, with sub-freezing temperatures leaving their mark on frozen water lines and overworked heating units.

Plumbing and heating contractors in Monroe County all seem to share the fruits of frosty labor, as the demand for trouble calls is timeless.

"For the past two weeks we have been swamped with calls to service frozen water lines and burner troubles," reported the H. C. Archibald Co. of Stroudsburg. Emergency calls are made to regular service customers on a 24-hour basis.

The H. L. Cleveland Co., Inc. of East Stroudsburg has also felt the demand and reports it can only answer about half of their calls.

Trailer calls

A lot of calls from trailer homes are received by the Eagle Supply Co. in Saylorsburg, answering calls every night except Sundays. Sometimes they receive four or five calls in one night and just can't cover them all, especially if the calls are scattered in a wide area.

It seems that in many cases these trouble calls are due to carelessness and limited preparation for the winter.

Archibald's received a "no heat" call and found that the burner was out of oil. Other times a fuse may be blown.

"These things the person can take care of himself," a heating specialist said.

A spokesman for Eagle Supply, said "people should prepare for the winter months."

Insulated tape is a very expensive item compared to servicing a frozen water line.

"Usually a person will wait two or three days after a pipe starts freezing instead of calling right away," added the spokesman.

These service agencies agree that most people can help themselves in such matters by making self inspections of water lines and burners, insulating open spaces or cracks that expose lines to direct cold air and by keeping a check on the fuel level of burners.

The best protection is to be prepared before the sub-freezing temperatures make their mark.

Police probe two accidents

STROUDSBURG — Stroud Township police reported two accidents Thursday morning.

Iris Cavalier, Canadensis, was leaving the driveway at Wiss Motors on Route 611 and collided with a car driven by James Quick, Mount Pocono. No injuries were reported. Police estimate total damage at $1,000.

A minor damage incident occurred in the Giant Market parking lot, when Natalie Stackhouse, Stroudsburg, pulled out of her parking space while Thelma Werckheiser, Stroudsburg, entered the adjacent parking space. A door was pulled off during the incident, with estimated damages of $75.

Smrz presents budget

C. D. director cites apathy

STROUDSBURG — Gilbert Smrz, Monroe County Civil Defense Director, Thursday rapped public indifference to the CD program claiming there is a "lack of interest on the part of the public."

Smrz, appearing before the Monroe County Commissioners, made the remarks following the presentation of a proposed $6,928 Civil Defense budget for 1968.

Asked by Mrs. Nancy Shukaitis, commissioner, if Smrz was satisfied with the CD activities, the director replied an emphatic, "Never," and continued that he would like another year in an attempt to revitalize the program.

He cited the gradual reduction in state matching funds vital to the CD program as a factor in the program's ineffectiveness.

"If the government keeps cutting the funds the county can start looking," Smrz said referring to a defense program.

The director presented a major proposal to the board suggesting the county's control center, shared by 11 municipalities, be duplicated in the CD headquarters.

Smrz estimated the cost of the equipment at $1,000 and proposed a cost-share payment by the agencies involved.

According to Smrz, the control center, located in the Stroudsburg Municipal building, could be inoperable in case of a power failure, whereas a CD facility would function as an emergency generator power.

He said the plan would require Federal Communications Commission approval as well as the authorization of Control Center officials.

Smrz reported that Stroudsburg police chief Jack Tretheway was one who voiced his approval of the proposal.

Cost-share plan was accepted each agency would be paying about $80 to $90 for the equipment.

He also said there is the possibility of receiving 50 per cent of the cost in matching funds. The tentative budget is up from last year's figures of a $4,500 county cost. The budget total for 1968 is $12,581 with matching reimbursement funds lowering the county cost to the $6,928 amount.

Smrz said he included a salary raise from $1,820 to $2,600 for himself but quickly added it was a "longue-in-check" request as "I could not afford it."

Same salary

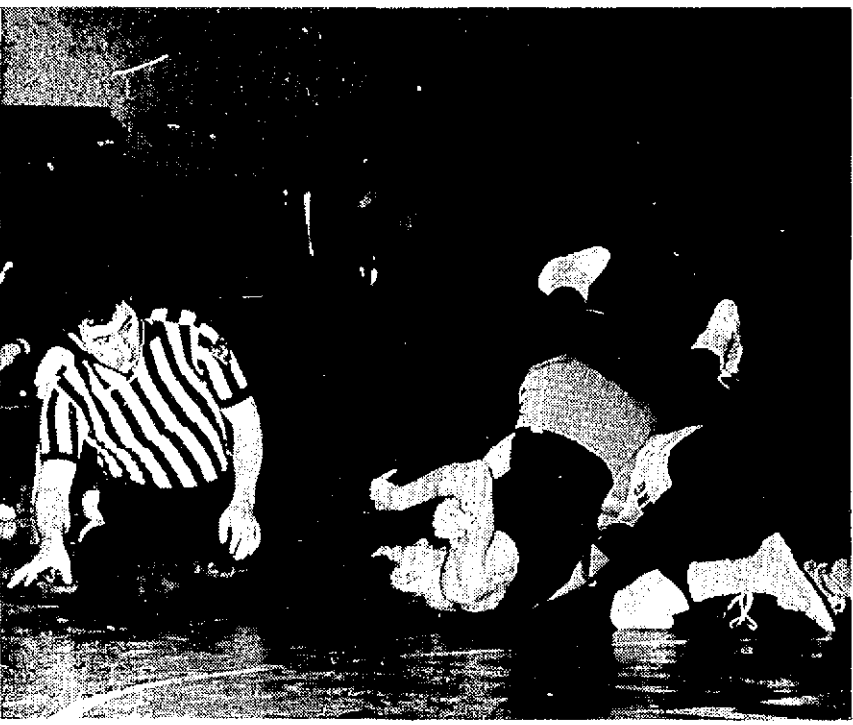

The director said he would, "just as soon stay at the old $1,820 salary."

Smrz is a part-time director as opposed to counties who employ a year-round CD director.

He also included a $500 budget item that would be used to purchase a trailer to mobilize the county's emergency generator.

Referring to the apathy he has encountered with the public in regard to CD, Smrz said a recent advertising campaign carried by numerous news media failed to net a single response.

He did cite, however, several high schools were actively working in CD courses.

Mounties' Dan Keuler (white jersey) appears to have the upper hand against the Hornets' Phil Valli Thursday night. But, with seconds left, Valli had the upper hand and pinned Keuler with a reverse cradle.

Starts with 1967-68 school year

Frosh rule not retroactive

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association's policy-making council ruled Thursday that the new freshman rule affects only those freshmen starting with the 1967-68 school year, and is not retroactive.

The rule, adopted by a 163-160 vote Thursday, makes freshmen eligible for all varsity sports except football and basketball and permits them to compete for four years and in all NCAA post-season events.

"There was some misunderstanding on interpretation of the rule," Charles Neinas, assistant executive director of the NCAA, reported. "The council cleared up the matter at its final meeting Thursday."

The Western Athletic Conference, which includes such teams as Wyoming, Utah, Arizona and Arizona State, and the Southwestern, with such teams as Tennessee, Alabama and Georgia, have been permitting freshman participation in minor and spring sports.

While such athletes could compete in regular season dual meets and competitions, they were prevented by the NCAA rules from taking part in NCAA events, such as the national championships, in more than the three varsity years allowed.

"I'll give you an example," Neinas told a press conference. "Arizona State had a fine sprinter named Uis Williams. He competed as a freshman. He could take part in our championship track meets for three years but in his final year, as a senior, he was barred."

"The same prevails under the present rule. No council action is ever retroactive."

The WAC, which sponsored the freshman legislation, has played freshmen in all sports except football and basketball for several years. The Southwestern Conference joined this past year and the Southwest permitted freshmen to compete in individual sports, such as tennis and golf.

Most of the major conferences, the sprawling Eastern College Athletic Conference with its 171 members, the Big Ten and Pacific-8 have rules against freshman competition. They all indicated that they would stick to their current rules until forced into a change by possible recruiting disadvantages.

Ewing Kauffman named KC's new baseball owner

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Ewing M. Kauffman, who started his $30-million drug firm 18 years ago in the basement of his home, was named Kansas City's new baseball owner by the American League Thursday and said, "I've talked to three or four top men who want to be executive vice president of the club."

"We will announce a board of directors—all Kansas Citians — about next Tuesday, after talk of the Super Bowl has died down," Kauffman said with a smile.

"Then the board will interview the men I've talked to and choose an executive vice president, who will run the ball club."

The league had granted Kansas City a 1968 expansion franchise to replace Charles O. Fin-ley's Oakland Athletics. Kauffman, the city's first home-based major league owner, was the only applicant offering one-man ownership, which the American League prefers.

Kauffman took pains to make it clear the club would never be moved from Kansas City, that the team will be run solely by baseball men and that all profits would go back into the club.

"Mayor, Kansas City will never lose this club," Kauffman told Mayor Gus Davis. "My attorney has put it in writing to the City Council and the American League that the club will never leave here during my lifetime, and my estate is legally bound to sell the club to Kansas City citizens."

Kauffman, 51, is president of Marion Laboratories Inc. The franchise will cost him almost $6 million, most of it going for 30 players at $175,000 each.

Kauffman suggested to newsmen that they set up a public contest to name the club.

Graham tops Crosby field by stroke

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Tennesseean Lou Graham retrieved his delt putting touch quickly Thursday and dropped six birdie putts for a four-under-par 68 and the first round lead in the $104,500 Bing Crosby Golf Tournament.

A year ago Graham didn't have a three-putt green in the Crosby, but he started this time by needing three putts on the first hole. On the second, however, he dropped a 25-footer for his first birdie and wound up the day one stroke ahead of Tommy Jacobs, who had 69, and two ahead of Johnny Pott.

Nicklaus close

Defending champion Jack Nicklaus remained in strong contention with a 71, but Arnold Palmer went to 76 with a double bogey on the fifth hole and bogeys on the next two. He twice missed putts for a foot.

In the Crosby a year ago, Graham tied for 15th, 11 strokes behind Nicklaus.

Graham, Nicklaus and Pott were among the group playing the first round at Cypress Point, a 6,464-yard seaside layout with a par 37-35. Palmer and Jacobs were at the tougher Pebble Beach course, a 6,747-yard test. Billy Casper, runner-up to Nicklaus last year and two-time winner here, shot his opening round at Spyglass Hill, a new 6,972-yard test, and wound up with a 73.

Brooks signs

Lamonica doesn't plan to scramble

BOCA RATON, Fla. (AP) — There's a mounted 35-pound bobcat hanging in Daryl Lamonica's den. He calls it Raider and for a very special reason.

"I shot it with my pistol on a hunting trip," said Lamonica Thursday, who will quarterback the Oakland Raiders against Green Bay in professional football's Super Bowl showdown at Miami Sunday.

"When I got back from the trip, I learned I had been traded by Buffalo to Oakland," he continued.

Lamonica was dealt to the Raiders last March.

"I was shocked when I heard about the trade," said Lamonica. "Only two weeks before I had been in Buffalo and talked to Coach Joe Collier. He assured me that I'd have an equal shot at the starting quarterback job. Then, two weeks later, I was gone. I decided to nickname the bobcat I shot Raider so that I wouldn't forget the day."

Lamonica had spent four years warming the bench at Buffalo behind Jack Kemp. "I always believed I could do the job," he said. "At Oakland, I got the chance to prove it."

He proved it in a big way with 30 touchdown passes, 220 completions in 425 attempts and 3,228 yards gained. The figures made him the AFL's No. 1 ranked quarterback.

Lamonica is a pocket quarterback, much in the tradition of his opposite number Sunday, Green Bay's Bart Starr.

"I do what I have to do," he said. "There are two things that can make you scramble—fear and common sense. It's not in my game plan by any means."

What is in Lamonica's game plan is to eliminate errors.

"Mistakes... that's what beats you in pro football," he said.

"A quarterback doesn't throw the ball unless he thinks it will be a completion," said Lamonica. "No mistakes means no interceptions."

S-burg bows to Emmaus, 32 to 17

By TED WISMER
Record Sports Editor
STROUDSBURG — Stroudsburg's hopes of taking the Lehigh Valley Wrestling League seasonal title outright were jolted by powerful Emmaus Thursday night, 32-17.

A Mountie win would have given them a 3-0 record in league play and put them in the driver's seat in the title chase.

In the league standings, Northampton (a 33-17 winner over previously unbeaten Whitehall) and Emmaus are 3-1 while Stroudsburg and Whitehall are both 2-1. In the other league match, Slatington downed Catasauqua 28-20 for its first win.

But the Hornets, who were dumped by Northampton, made it a long night for head coach Chet Dalgewicz as they captured six straight bouts (129 through 163).

S-burg was not up to par physically as Nick Scerbo (112) missed his second straight match with a shoulder injury and Ernie Neyhart (165) wrestled although weakened by the flu.

Mike Stolsinski gave the Mounties five quick points as he pinned sophomore Reed Derr in 2:58 with a body press. Stolsinski had a first period takedown and predicament and a reversal in the second before getting the pinning combination.

Then at 105 league champion Ernie McElwath was too much for sophomore Bob Stetler. The Hornet veteran took Stetler down in the first 20 seconds for the only scoring.

Stetler used a figure-4 cross body ride throughout the entire second period and McElwath rode Stetler the entire third.

At 114 pounds the Hornets' Jack Nonamacher took Jack Serfass down early and ended the bout after 66 seconds with an arm bar and head chancery. The pin gave Emmaus a 9-5 lead and it was never headed.

Unbeaten Dan Moyer did everything but pin Keith Shaffer at 122 pounds as the former racked up three nearfalls, two takedowns, two predicaments and a nearfall enroute to a commanding 22-3 decision. This closed the gap to 9-8 but the Mounties fans didn't have a thing to cheer about until the 182 pound class and by then the final outscore had been decided.

In the next six bouts the Hornets picked up four decisions and two falls. The falls were Ron Valli over Dan Keuler at 129 and Dave Steiner over Ernie Neyhart at 167. Lee Rockwell bested Gary VanBuskirk at 138 (12-4); Phil Weida decided Paul Lesoine, 6-3, at 130; Joe Schantz overpowered Ed Strunk, 8-3, at 143; Gary Sell was too strong for Charlie Zellers at 154, 4-2.

S-burg's Terry Bush, a doubtful performer at 182 because of a knee injury, came up with a reversal and near-fall in the final 15 seconds to gain a 5-2 decision over Rick Machole. Then in the unlimited test, Dale Keenhold needed only 42 seconds to put away Bob Romig.

Emmaus also won the junior varsity action, 29-16.

Stroudsburg is at home again Saturday night when it will take on one of the top teams in

New Jersey in Warren Hills (formerly Washington).

55 — Stollinski, S, pinned Derr in 2:58 (2-0).
105 — McElwath, E, decided Scerbo, 9-0 (3-0).
114 — Nonamacher, E, pinned Serfass in 1:35 (3-0).
122 — Moyer, S, decided Shaffer, 22-3 (8-0).
129 — Valli, B, pinned Keuler in 1:36 (8-1).
130 — Weida, S, decided Lesoine, 6-3 (8-1).
138 — Rockwell, S, decided VanBuskirk, 12-4 (8-2).
143 — Schantz, E, decided Strunk, 8-3 (8-2).
154 — Sell, E, decided Zellers, 4-2 (8-2).
167 — Steiner, E, pinned Neyhart in 1:33 (8-2).
182 — Bush, S, decided Machole, 5-2 (11-2).
Unltd. — Keenhold, S, pinned Romig in 0:42 (17-32).

NEW YORK (AP) — John Pont, who pulled off a 100-1 feat in leading Indiana University through a 9-1 season and into the Rose Bowl, was named college football's Coach of the Year Thursday by his fellow coaches.

The 39-year-old Miami of Ohio graduate was voted the annual Kodak Award in a poll of 2,000 members of the American Football Coaches Association.

The same group elected Cecil "Scrappy" Moore, who is retiring after 42 years at the University of Chattanooga, the Kodak Award for having done the best coaching job in small college ranks.

Moore's 42nd Chattanooga team had a 7-3 record and gave the slim, gray-haired grandfather a career mark of 171 victories, 146 defeats and 13 ties.

Pont took a Hoosier team that had won only one of 10 games in 1966 and turned it into a winner that placed fourth in The Associated Press national rankings.

"Discipline and imagination were the trademarks of our team," Pont said. "The boys possessed tremendous spirit and drive. They didn't believe they could be beaten. They were a team that would make any coach look good."

Pont said that at Indiana this year he and his staff picked the best 22 players and decided to forget about replacements.

"We sought to instill responsibility in them from the beginning," he added. "I called no more than 10 per cent of the plays. The other 90 per cent of the plays were left to our quarterback, Harry Gosso."

"I believe in giving this responsibility to the players and we get more out of them. They learned to believe in themselves. They were a remarkable group."

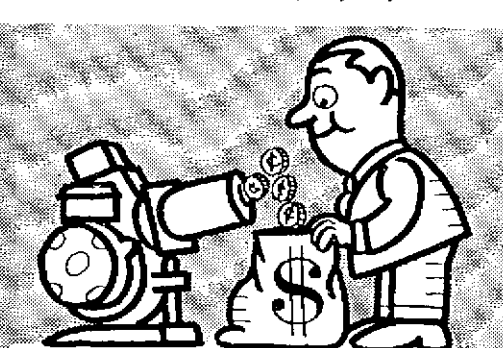

The Hoosiers lost only one game—to Minnesota, 33-7—but came back for a titanic 19-14 triumph over Purdue and the great Leroy Keyes. They lost to top-ranked Southern California in the Rose Bowl, 14-3.

Moore's Chattanooga teams played and beat larger football powers.

'67-'68 season year of soph at ESSC

EAST STROUDSBURG — After reviewing the results of the East Stroudsburg State-Oswego wrestling match which the Warriors won 20-11, comparisons can be made between the ESSC grapplers and their counterparts on the football field.

The Warrior football team was not highly rated at the onset of the year, but a multitude of sophomores proved the experts wrong and finished with a glittering 7-1 mark. The second-year men are beginning to make a similar record for themselves on the mats as well. Although the wrestling experts don't have ESSC rated in the top ten nationally, if the Warriors continue along at their present clip, East Stroudsburg could again defy predictions. They are 5-0 in dual meets this year. Five of six ESSC wins against Oswego were by underclassmen, and four by unheralded sophomores beginning to flex their muscles. Despite losses in the first three individual matches, including a pin of ESSC All-American Ned Bushong by Oswego's John Waller, the Red and Black matmen came roaring back to take the last six bouts of the match.

Sophomores Dan Rossi, 152 lbs., John Pitzer, 150 lbs., Bob Devore, 167 lbs., and Rich Schumacher, unlimited, all proved too tough for the Lakers to handle.

Schumacher, a 240-pounder from Suffern, New York, again provided the clinching points with a pin in 6:32 over Jim Boyce. It raised Rich's record to 4-0 after missing the first dual match of the year against Montclair. The pin came after Schumacher had piled up an impressive second period lead in a contest which had found Rich trailing 3-2 after the first period.

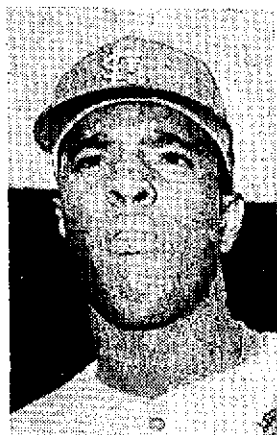

Dan Rossi, Lititz, Pa., lifted his record to 4-0-1 by methodically whipping John Manzer 18-8. The popular 152-pounder gave the fans plenty to cheer about as twice he came very close to pinning his Laker opponent.

For John Pitzer, Bendersville, Pa., and Bob Devore, Port Jervis, N.Y., it marked their first dual match performances for the ESSC varsity and Coach Clyde "Red" Witman couldn't have sprung them at a more opportune time. Pitzer, in what was described as "the best match of his life," decisively defeated a veteran Mike Vallone 6-1 to give the Warriors three points that the coach hadn't counted on. Devore then dramatically pulled ESSC into a 12-11 match lead by outpointing Rich Smith 7-3. The most impressive thing about these two sophomores is that they were figured to be wrestling at 152 lbs. this year and are capable of making that weight if the need so arises.

With nine out of the eleven positions being wrestled by underclassmen, the addition of two key transfers to the second semester lineup, and a host of freshmen comprises what Coach Witman calls the most promising group of first year men that he has ever had. The future looks rosy and the top ten rating which had eluded ESSC so far this year should not remain as hard to obtain in the months or years to come.

Swap outfielders

St. Louis Cardinals' General Manager Bing Devine announced Thursday that he had swapped Cardinal outfielder Alex Johnson (left, shown in 1967 files) to the Cincinnati Reds for outfielder Dick Simpson (right, '67 files).

2 Minnesota champs in Buck Hill races

BUCK HILL FALLS — Two champions — both from Minnesota — will head an all-star field in the second annual Buck Hill Snowmobile Championships Saturday and Sunday.

Jerry Reese and Bob Eastman, Gopher State representatives, head a record 130-man, woman entry list in the two-day event at Buck Hill's famous Family Ski Area.

Reese was the winner of the "Great 500," a four-day test over snow from Winnipeg, Canada, to St. Paul, Minnesota. The "500" winner averaged 125 miles a day to win the marathon snowmobile classic. Eastman captured Minnesota's famed "Kawartha Cup" for exploits in the state's snowmobile championships.

Race director Harry Brennan, winter sports manager at Buck Hill, announced that applications for the 11-event program over the two-mile obstacle course are "pouring in."

Brennan said, "Twenty inches of snow and near-zero weather have made conditions ideal for the contestants. We anticipate the most exciting snowmobile championships ever held in the Pocono Mountains."

Highlighting the program will be the naming of "Champion Snowmobile Driver." He or she will be selected via the point system. Also to be crowned will be champions in the Stock and Modified classes.

Awards will be presented to drivers who finish first, second and third in all events.

Also on tap will be two Powder Puff derbies for the women.

Races will cover 10 to 15 miles, averaging five to seven laps per event.

The rules committee reported that classification of machines will be by engine displacement only. Drivers may enter only in his registered class or above.

John G. Horsman, president and general manager of Buck Hill Falls Inn, is host and honorary chairman.

76ers buy John Green from Rockets

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia 76ers of the National Basketball Association announced the acquisition Thursday of jumping Johnny Green from the San Diego Rockets for undisclosed cash and a 1968 third draft choice.

Green, a 9-year veteran of the NBA, brings a career average of 12.3 points a game and some 700 rebounds a season. Recognized as one of the game's best leapers, Green has averaged 13.5 points this season for the expansion babies at San Diego.

Jack Ramsay, 76ers' general manager, said Green "gives us added strength up front and insurance in case of injury to front liners. He's an experienced player and strong rebounder and we anticipate periods of concerted offensive and defensive power from him."

The 6 foot-5 Green, played his college basketball at Michigan State, joining the New York Knicks in 1959 and playing for them six years.

He was the center of a multi-player deal in 1965, which sent Green to Baltimore and center Walt Bellamy to New York. Green played with the Bullets three years, and last spring was taken in the expansion club draft by San Diego.

The 76ers, leading the eastern division by two games over Boston, have been short-handed of late because of the injury which forced guard Larry Costello to retire, an ankle injury to their important sixth man, Billy Cunningham, and lesser ailments incurred by other members of the squad.

ABL, NBA to fight for talent

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—George Mikan, commissioner of the American Basketball Association, said Tuesday his league will battle the National Basketball Association in college player drafting.

"This will be a fight for the best talent," Mikan said, "and we're both going to have to pay for that talent."

But Mikan said the ABA, which opened play in October, does not want to be in direct competition with the 22-year-old NBA. "We are working to cut down that type of competition," he said.

Mikan spoke with newsmen a few hours before the ABA's first All-Star game here Tuesday night.

Mikan still has no commitments about televising league games.

"We're working to get the playoffs on TV," he said, "but no regular season games will be telecast this season."

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By B. Jay Becker

BIDDING QUIZ

You are the dealer, neither side vulnerable. What would you bid with each of the following five hands?

1. ♠AQ7 ♥K6 ♦K9 ♣KJ983
2. ♠KQ4 ♥K92 ♦AQ83 ♣A75
3. ♠Q743 ♥Q985 ♦A2 ♣AK8
4. ♠AQJ10 ♥A7 ♦A4 ♣98652
5. ♠KQJ9763 ♥6 ♦8 ♣KQJ54

1. One notrump. This shows 16 to 18 high-card points, balanced distribution (usually 4-3-3-3 or 4-4-3-2, sometimes 5-3-3-2) and strength in all suits. It is far better to open with a notrump than a club.

2. There are good reasons for preferring one notrump. Perhaps the most important is that the bid immediately pinpoints the type of hand held. As opposed to this, an opening club bid could be based on many types of distribution and a wide range of high cards.

Furthermore, a club opening would present a difficult rebid problem if partner's response were a diamond, a heart a spade or a notrump, any of which would make a satisfactory rebid impossible. The way to avoid such problems is to open with the highly descriptive bid of one notrump and let partner do the rest.

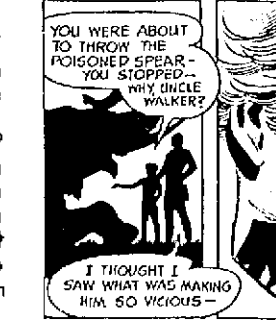

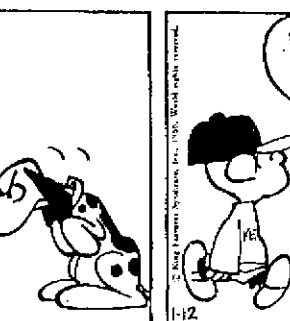

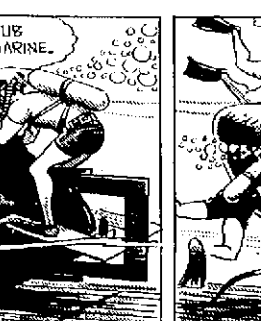

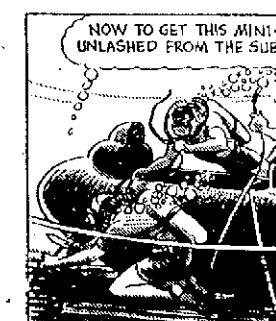

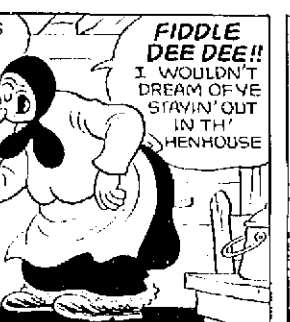

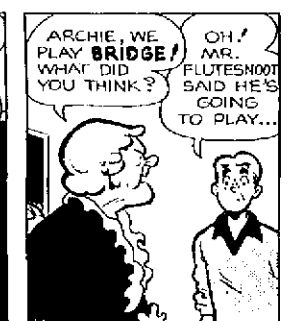

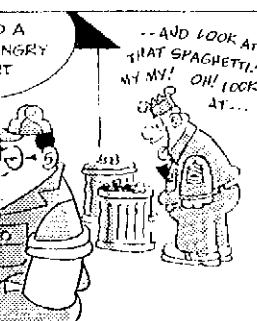

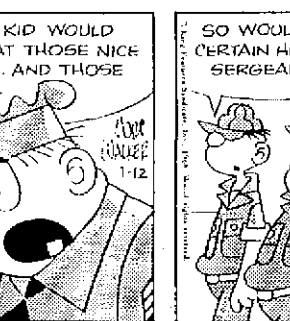

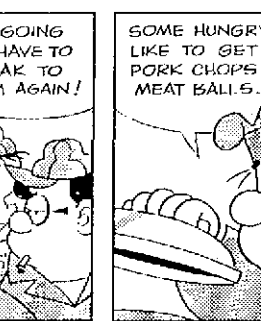

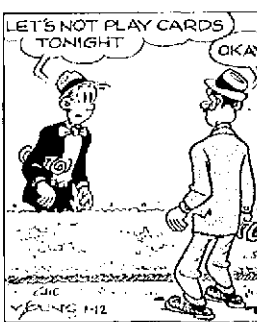

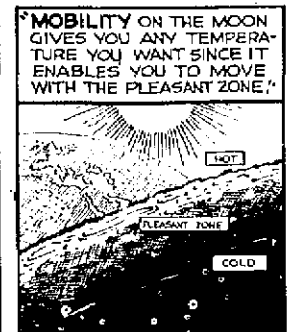

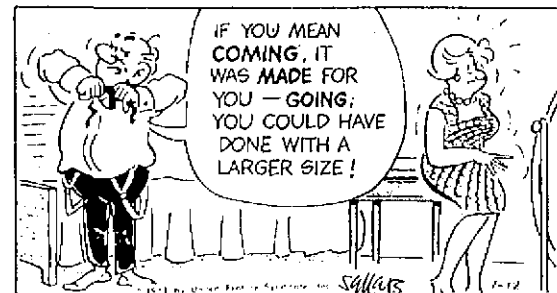

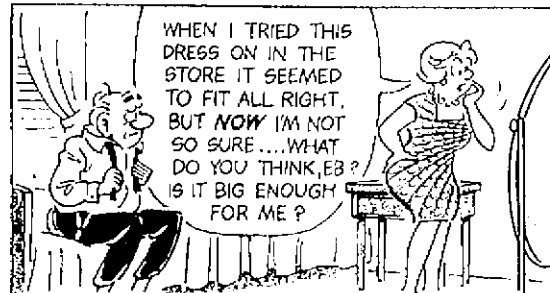

3. One diamond. Despite the notrump complexion of the hand, the proper opening is a diamond. Hands containing 19 high-card points do not fall into the category of one or two notrump opening bids. Such hands are opened with one of a suit. The extra values are shown by jumping in notrump at the next opportunity.

3. One club. Here we have no legitimate suit with which to open the bidding, since the spades and hearts are too weak to mention and we have only three clubs. But since any 15-point hand qualifies as an opening bid, something must be done. The club bid is easily the best choice. It keeps the bidding low and allows for the discovery of a major suit fit if there is one.

4. One club. Here also, the best introductory bid is a club. This permits the spades to be bid secondarily if partner responds a diamond or a heart, and also serves to keep the bidding low. An opening spade bid would create a difficult rebid problem if partner's response were two of either red suit.

5. Four spades. This bid serves a dual purpose. It is an offensive effort which may easily succeed in full if partner has an ace. But even more important in the long run is the defensive value of the bid. If partner has a poor hand, it is odds-on that the opponents have a game. However, because of the high level at which they must compete to find the game, there is a good chance of their missing their best contract.

Area state hospital staff short

HARRISBURG—The State Department of Public Welfare's Office of Mental Health said Thursday that as of July 1 (beginning of the new fiscal year) there were 33 employee vacancies at Allentown State Hospital, with a five-county service area including Monroe County patients.

Vacancies are listed in the following categories: psychiatrists, four; other staff physicians, two; dentists and dental assistants, two; occupational therapists and assistants, one; registered professional nurses, seven; other nurses, one; attendants, matrons, supervisors of ward service and assistants, two; teachers of grade subjects, one; teachers of special subjects, one; other professional personnel, two; clerical employees including 715 full-time personnel, four; all other personnel, five.

The area hospital was listed at that time as having 729 employees including 715 full-time and 14 part-time (or 722 full-time equivalents). A breakdown of employees is as follows:

Employee listing
Superintendents and assistant superintendents, two; clinical directors, one; psychiatrists, four (and three part-time); other staff physicians, six (and six part-time); psychiatric residents, one; dentists and dental assistants, two (and one part-time); psychologists and psychometrists, six; occupational therapists and assistants, 12; industrial therapists and assistants, 10; therapeutic recreators and assistants, 11; hydrotherapists, physiotherapists and assistants, one.

Bleak future

Biafra may not last out one year

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — The unrecognized republic of Biafra enters 1968 with scant hope of lasting out the year.

Secessionists continue a tenacious defense, using guerrilla tactics and neutral geographic obstacles to slow the advance of Nigerian Federal forces into the tribal territory—heartland of the rebellion. Biafra is virtually cut off by a sea and land blockade, its economy is at a standstill and it reportedly is running out of war material.

The seven-month-old civil war is also wearing thin the fabric of federation in the rest of Africa's most populous nation. Yorubas in Nigeria's old Western region and the once dominant Hausa-Fulani tribesmen in the north are bickering.

Pressure Applied
Elsewhere in West Africa, 1968 will see military regimes in Ghana, Sierra Leone and Togo under pressure to bow to civilian rule. A referendum is planned in Togo.

A summit meeting of Arab heads of state in Rabat, Morocco, will be Africa's first major political event of the new year. Its main task is to hammer out joint policy toward a U.N. mediation mission.

Howari Boumedienne in Algeria seems much more firmly established after putting down an opposition faction this month.

The French navy plans to abandon its huge Algerian base at Mers-el-khebir, nine years earlier than required by treaty. Rumors persist that Algeria is negotiating for Russian "technical assistance" to run the base.

Russia's diplomatic renaisance in Africa is likely to spread, Soviet MIG jet fighters, helicopters and gunboats were supplied to a grateful Lagos government to suppress the Biafran revolt. Congo President Joseph Mobutu's Kinshasa regime is expected to renew officially diplomatic links with Moscow.

White mercenaries may be a nuisance in the Congo, but no longer constitute a serious threat.

Terrorism increasing
The Organization of African Unity promises, and Rhodesia and South Africa say they expect, stepped-up terrorism across the Zambezi River.

African "freedom fighters" want to topple the entrenched regime of Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith, penetrate South Africa and stir unrest in the United Nations' mandated territory of South-West Africa.

South Africa shows no sign of relinquishing its grip on South-West Africa nor of easing stringent apartheid, or race separation, rules. But the new "outward looking" foreign policy designed to win friends and influence in black Africa will be pursued.

Portugal continues to have the upper hand in combatting "freedom fighters" in Angola and Mozambique.

Britain's last African territory joins the ranks of independent nations in September when Swaziland goes it alone.

Today, as in the past, the newspapers of our country serve as the faithful watchdog of all of our hard won social values.

It does things other small cars shouldn't do.

Cornering at high speeds is one of the last things to expect small cars to do, successfully. Unless it's a SAAB, the out-of-the-ordinary small car. Out of the ordinary because it has front-wheel drive. So it doesn't push you around like others do. It pulls you around corners, curves and other drivers' mistakes. Is that all SAAB has? Not on your life. Most ordinary cars don't give you, even as options, all the standard SAAB safety features. As an optional extra, our new V-4 engine has a LIFETIME GUARANTEE.

JACK O'BRIAN'S

Voice of Broadway

NEW YORK—Advertising endorsements are older than you, and you, probably the first was for Murad cigarettes—and the star: Fatty Arbuckle. Edie Adams says she's sorry now she ever changed from her early-performing right name of Edith. Bette Midler, Henderson's sorry he ever took on that nominal rivalry instead of sticking with his own original stuff—English "Lyle Cedric Henderson" . . . As it is, he can't ever bust out of his bag as a minor TV clown and a capable pop conductor. . . But a dignified railroad conductor couldn't get by as a "Skitch". Maybe that's why Skitch became a 3rd Ave. saloonkeeper. . . Even there, he has an odd leaning toward names: he took an old 3rd Ave. Irish saloon named "Daly's" and now it's "Daly's Dandelion, a trifle flowery for downers of boiler-makers and straight booze.

Director Gene Saks gave roles in his "Odd Couple" film to his own father and his star Walter Matthau's mother. . . Trivia note: every year the U.S. junks as many cars as the rest of the world produces. . . To date, Don Rickles has appeared on network TV more than 50 times; and he'll be funny yet. Don Ameche wore the same suit-size in "Henry, Sweet Henry" as he did when he invented the telephone for 20th-Fox; and let's say also quite sincerely, the same halutz, actually and figuratively. Fine man.

Ronald Reagan's attitudes aren't supposed to coincide with Bobby Kennedy's but he certainly shook up the pickets at an Oregon meeting where he was heckled for not agreeing with Bobby about sending American blood to the Vietnam. Reagan said he'd be glad to send it—in the original containers.

"Funny Girl" turned Egyptian Omar Sharif into a "Jewish" Nicky Arnstein (opposite Barbra Streisand) simply by trimming his bushy mustache to a thin lip-line. . . New film star rage: pearl-inked pool tables, $5,000 and up. . . George Murphy and Ronnie Reagan weren't the first showbizners in politics: Rex Bell, ex-western-star husband of Clara Bow, was Lt. Gov. of Nevada, remember?

The Bobby Kennedy-for-President hooplah is ready to bust loose and don't think it's not serious: a topflight songwriter has penned new rics to the WW I "K-K-K-TV" to make it "K-K-K-Kennedy" and "B-B-B-Bobby" and a button manufacturer has millions of "K-K-K-Kennedy" items ready for mass-planning. C. V. (Sonny) Whitney invested in and earned millions from "Gone With the Wind" but his next film won't be so open-walleted; it's an original he says can be produced for $500,000. . . That's less than his wife's jewel-robbery loss last summer ($780,000).

Just-fired manager of a brace of feverishly ambitious performers threatens to take them to court and disgrace them with some gamey revelations; but what about his countenancing such grubby doings while still their manager? There is a law of "estoppel," which prevents an associate from testifying to ugliness he permitted while raking it in. . . Upstate Republican politician Walter J. Mahoney found justification with his election upstate to the N.Y. Supreme Court.

Barbara McNair didn't take her Vietnam tour with Bob Hope casually: she spent $10,000 on the proper-improper costumes to give the GIs a morale boost, says Barbara. "Never has so much been spent on so little."

Actress Brenda Forbes, in Boston with the new "Married Alive" musical, can't appear on her native U.S. citizen and the English actors union performers (who must be replaced by local Limeys when our plays falter over there).

The old-old Catskills Borscht Circuit started with little farmhouses and rocking chairs on porches; now it's a luxury big resort-economy and the little places die like flies. . .

The Concord, for instance, has a 1968 entertainment budget alone of $1,500,000—six permanent bands on the premises (ranging from jazz great Erskine Hawkins to a once-weekly symphony).

Milton Berle (with Joey Bishop) looked mighty youthful for a lad hitting 60 this July. . . Gregory Peck wants to direct "The Strong Breed" by Wole Soyinka for his L.A. theatre project in Watts. . . His widow's setting up "Paul Maul Scholarships" in his memory. . . By far the finest disc jockey in N.Y.—WNEW's Ted Brown.

First time in 20 years a play, Theodore H. White's "We Cross the Rubicon," will be a Literary Guild selection. . . All other GOP candidates are worried, with reason, that Ike will give his nod to Gov. Rockefeller. Phyllis Diller's holiday gifts: monogrammed beanbags. . . For some 41 years, seasons hot or cold, Gov. Romney's worn long cotton-knit long, John underwear with Mormon symbols stitched to chest and funny: "temple garments" they're called. . . Biggest grossing nightclub in the country—the N.Y. Playboy Club.

King Solomon's love life is the theme of "In Someone Else's Sandals," $500,000 musical due at the Mark Hellinger Theatre in April. . . Benny Goodman gave Thailand's jazz-oriented King Bhumipol an electronically amplified saxophone and the King thanked Benny with, "If only it could amplify the talent as well as the sound!" "Biggest Bundle of Them All" is Edward G. Robinson's 93rd film. . . Eddie was 72 in Dec. Peggy Ryan of the bright old Donald O'Connor H'wood musicals, may leave Honolulu (where she's Mrs. Eddie Sherman, wife of the popular Honolulu columnist) to direct a few H'wood TV films. The Bdwy. stage this season looks like the Late Late TV

Show: Ingrid Bergman, Don Ameche, Melvyn Douglas, Angela Lansbury, Gig Young, Rita Gam, Lloyd Bridges, Peri Gilpin, Gordon MacRae, Martin Balsam, Helen Hayes, Lauren Bacall (just left "Cactus Flower"), Barry Nelson, Barbara Bel Geddes, Cab Calloway, Melina Mercouri, Margaret Leighton, Ann Bancroft, Barbara Britton, etc. . . Quick—which disc artist—next to Presley's 20—has peddled the most million-seller

records? Nope: Fats Domino Claims it with 17 gold platters. At the Jolly, sixpence, where visiting Limey's congregated, 19-year-old Glasgow singer "Lulu" confessed her full name: Marie MacDonald McLaughlin Lawrie. . . Okay, Lu. . . Time toddles on, item: Ava Gardner's playing Omar Sharif's mother in "Mayerling". . . Stella Stevens is nude in the current Playboy, a junkie in "Sol Madrid"—and a nun in "Where Angels Go, Troubles Follow."

Blow your horn without lifting a finger.

Only Olds dealers have it. A horn control that extends all the way around the inside of the steering wheel. Think of it. You sound your horn with the simple reflex action of your fingers. It's part of Oldsmobile's Tilt-and-Telescope Steering Wheel—one of the exclusive Olds availabilities for '68. Olds also offers a button that pops open your trunk lid from inside the car. A switch that lets you lock all doors with a single click. Even a buzzer that warns you when you're about to nudge the speed limit. And they're all further proof that, for '68, the young ideas belong to Oldsmobile.
